

Financial services Aetna Resources For Living[™]

Help taking control of your finances

Sometimes a little help can go a long way. Simply call us to speak with a financial consultant. You can get a free 30-minute consultation for each issue you'd like to ask about. From creating a budget to setting long-term goals, we're here to help.

Information is at your fingertips by phone or online. Find help with:

- Creating a budget and managing debt
- Understanding bankruptcy options and requirements
- · Avoiding foreclosure and handling creditors
- Preparing for a home purchase and saving for your down payment

- Setting financial goals and deciding on investment strategies
- Planning for college expenses and finding the right tuition plan

Here's how it works

Simply call us and answer a few brief questions. You'll be transferred to Financial Services.

Or you can choose to call them at a later time if that's more convenient. Either way, you'll be on your way to help with your financial issues. And don't forget about your member website. It's full of articles and resources that can help with your financial life and much more.

Financial services can help you with:

- Budgeting
- College funding
- Estate planning
- Tax return preparation
- Debt management
- Medicare/Social Security information

Give us a call for help making the most of your financial situation.

Credit repair

Investment planning

Retirement preparation

Credit report analysis

Aetna Resources For Living[™] is the brand name used for products and services offered through the Aetna group of subsidiary companies (Aetna). The EAP is administered by Aetna Behavioral Health, LLC. and in California for Knox-Keene plans and Health and Human Resources Center, Inc.

All EAP calls are confidential, except as required by law. EAP instructors, educators and participating providers are independent contractors and are not agents of Aetna. Provider participation may change without notice. For more information about Aetna plans, go to aetna.com.

