

“It’s tough watching your kids grow up and go out into the world. But it’s even harder when you see signs that something isn’t quite right.”

Aetna Resources For LivingSM

That’s what happened in my family. My son had a good job and social life. Then he got fired, starting acting strange and was going out with people we never met or heard of. It turned out he was using drugs. Luckily, I was able to call my EAP for help. Our counselor listened, helped identify what was happening and coached us on what we could do. Now my son’s clean and back to work. We’re hoping he stays on the right path. It isn’t easy being a parent — or a kid!

“Thanks for being there with support and advice when we really needed it.”

For illustrative purposes only. Does not reflect events experienced by an actual participant.

Aetna Resources For LivingSM is the brand name used for products and services offered through the Aetna group of subsidiary companies. The EAP is administered by Aetna Behavioral Health, LLC and in California for Knox-Keene plans, Aetna Health of California, Inc. and Health and Human Resources Center, Inc.

All EAP calls are confidential, except as required by law. This material is for informational purposes only. It contains only a partial, general description of programs and services and does not constitute a contract. EAP instructors, educators and network participating providers are independent contractors and are neither agents nor employees of Aetna. Aetna does not direct, manage, oversee or control the individual services provided by these persons and does not assume any responsibility or liability for the services they provide and, therefore, cannot guarantee any results or outcomes. The availability of any particular provider cannot be guaranteed and is subject to change. Information is believed to be accurate as of the production date; however, it is subject to change. For more information about Aetna plans, refer to www.aetna.com.